

Warren Village Admission Process

Applications may be obtained from the Housing Office and returned by appointment.

Only complete applications will be accepted and processed.

Please allow up to two (2) weeks for processing.

If eligible after Housing screening, the applicant will receive the Family Services Orientation packet.

Applicants should review the orientation packet that provides an agency overview and outlines the expectations for program participation.

Applicants who have reviewed the orientation packet will be invited to schedule a personal interview with Family Services staff.

Family Services staff will conduct an interview to assess applicant's readiness for the self-sufficiency program.

Interviews are scheduled based on availability and must be completed within 6 weeks of application.

Interviews may be conducted either remotely or in person. Childcare is not provided.

Completed interviews are reviewed by Family Services staff on a weekly basis.

After review, approved applicants are added to the apartment waitlist; The time on the waitlist will vary and will depend on size of unit to be offered and availability.

Denied applicants will be provided with appeal instructions. Request for appeal must be received within 30 days of notification.

Warren Village is an intensive self-sufficiency program for low-income single-parent families. Applicants must meet eligibility requirements and demonstrate personal motivation for change. Our admission process will ensure that applicants are prepared and able to take full advantage of the Warren Village Self-Sufficiency Program.
